Standish May Become Another Ghost Town

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 3 (AP).—Announcement that the prosperous little community of Standish, near here, may soon become another Adirondack "ghost town" because of the rumored dismantlement of a blast furnace there, recalled to old residents of the mountain country other once thriving villages now given over almost wholly to bats and owls.

None of the now deserted villages had a more spectacular or prosperous career than the famed mining village of Hammondville in southern Essex county. In the Civil War period the highest grades of iron ore in the United States were taken from mines in that region.

Old timers still recollect the days when the mansion of General Hammond, hero of the Civil War and owner of the mines, was a scene of gaiety. Long after the mine shafts had become overgrown with brush, the stately mansion still stood proudly in the midst of its lawns and trees.

Still farther south in the mountains, in Warren county, are the remains of another once famous and prosperous mining community, Graphite, named after that product. Business fell off and soon its scores of workers vanished to other sections.

A great mill, the last of the village's buildings, was swept by fire two years ago. Graphite passed out of existence because of much cheaper production of its product elsewhere than was possible there.

Barneviller in Franklin county, also has become a memory today. Ten years ago its last inhabitant moved away after watching house after house abandoned and the woods begin to reclaim what had been well-kept gardens.

The decline of lumbering caused Peaseville, once a prosperous Franklin county village, to become a "ghost town". What is left of its buildings still stand, although the village vanished as the forest receded before the saws and axes of lumbermen.

Goldsmiths and Onchiota, both within a few miles of Saranac Lake, once were regular lumber towns and now are close to being deserted. After the decline of the great log drives which passed down the Saranac river Goldsmiths was kept alive by sportsmen who came there to fish. Onchiota faded after a huge saw mill was dismantled. At the height of its existence many of its inhabitants had accumulated fair sized fortunes and spent it in abandon.

Boreas River, home of Nelson LaBier, one of the most famous of Adirondack guides, today is among the forgotten communities. Its homes are empty and crumbling before the advance of time. Many sportsmen, some of them of great wealth, brought much fame and prosperity to the tiny hamlet.

SOUGHT IN KIDNAP MAN-HUNT

WRITES WEYERHAEUSER 'SCOOP'

John H. Dreher, veteran Seattle Times reporter, is shown as he hammered out his sensational "scoop"—an interview with 9-year-old George Weyerhaeuser after the kidnaped Tacoma, Wash., boy was released. Acting on a hunch, Dreher took a taxi and met the farmer who was bringing George to Tacoma. Dreher returned the kidnaped boy to his parents. (Associated Press Photo)

FARMER RETURNS KIDNAPED BOY

Here is the battered old car in which John Bonifas started to bring home the kidnaped George Weyerhaeuser, who came to the Bonifas farm near Issaquah, Wash., after being freed. Bonifas, behind the wheel, stopped at police headquarters in Tacoma, Wash. (Associated Press Photo)

The parents of 9-year-old George Weyerhaeuser manifested their elation even after the kidnaped boy was returned. M. M. Salzman, family friend, is shown as he told reporters the boy was home. (Associated Press Photo)

Legion 3rd District Conference June 9

What is expected to be the largest gathering of Legionnaires in Troy since the New York State Department Convention in 1927, will take place Sunday, June 9, when the Third District Conference, representing 57 Posts in seven counties, is held.

This announcement was made by William J. Hennessy, Rensselaer county commander, on behalf of the Rensselaer County Legion Committee, who will be hosts. About 2,000 Legionnaires, 300 ladies of the Auxiliary, 300 Sons of the American Legion, 20 bands and drum corps and imitation French Locomotive and box cars of the Forty and Eight Society, fun and honor society of the Legion, from the counties of Albany, Rensselaer, Greene, Columbia, Schoharie, Ulster and Sullivan will come to Troy on that day to take part in the ceremonies.

The bugle and drum corps expected to take part in this affair are: Kingston, Catskill, Castleton, Rensselaer, Hoosick Falls, Watervliet, Cohoes, Cobleskill, Troy and several others; Kingston German Band and several high school bands including the Catholic Central High School Girls Drum Corps. Squads of the Sons of the American Legion Drum Corps from Cohoes, Hoosick Falls and several others. A large delegation of the Fort Orange Squadron of Albany, the largest in the state, is expected to take part in the ceremonies, as well as several others.

The Rensselaer County Committee, headed by County Commander William J. Hennessy, have made elaborate plans for the entertainment of all those attending. It will be a miniature state convention and probably the largest Third District Conference ever held.

Substantially lower year-to-date death rates than for the first four months of last year, are reported in 1936 for tuberculosis, cerebral hemorrhage, heart disease, pneumonia and chronic hepatitis, while smaller declines are registered for accidents, automobile fatalities and suicides.

Messmer Applies for Project on His Humus Beds Located Here

John Messmer, of Newark, N. J., vacant land developer and owner of one of the largest deposits of humus in the eastern section of the United States, has applied to the United States government for the establishment of a project on his humus beds, situated between Highland and New Palms.

The Wallkill Valley project, which has been pending for some years and which was a joint survey conducted by the Department of Conservation of the state of New York and army engineers connected with the War Department, reported on the said project some years ago, at which time much local interest was aroused. The matter, however, was allowed to lapse and only recently its approval by the United States government as a definite project, was announced, as of the date of May 26, 1935.

This project provides for drainage of flooded lands and for their being turned into land suitable for growing cucumbers, lettuce, celery, tomatoes, string beans and such other garden products. The entire land reclamation project involves over 20,000 acres and its benefit to the residents of Wallkill Valley is apparent.

As part of the project there will be set up—has been announced—two and possibly more Civilian Conservation Camps within easy access of Messmer's Ulster county humus deposits. It is presently planned to use the humus to be taken out of the deposit as part of the land reclamation scheme incident to the Wallkill Valley drainage project.

Much local interest has been aroused and Peter Harp, Roeliff DuBois and David H. Merritt are pushing the matter in the town of New Palms and will make official contacts in Highland, New Palms and Kingston. It is understood that they will secure approval of the various Chambers of Commerce, local improvement associations, service clubs, such as the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary, and various other civic agencies within the area to be developed. The value to the town of New Palms and Highland of the within project is self evident.

It will bring a number of scientists and engineers and also provide employment of many hundreds of local men, who will be engaged for a considerable period of time in taking out the humus and loading it for transportation. It will bring to the town a larger purchasing power than it now has at the present time. The two CCC camps have not as yet been designated as to site but the announcement has officially been made that Ulster county will be credited with two such units.

There are already PWA projects along the Wallkill river at or near Wallkill and Walgen and it is hoped to secure the cooperation of all existing government agencies for the purpose of taking humus out of the natural bed and spreading it wherever within the area there is a need of it.

The Messmer humus has been tested by the United States Department of Agriculture, the New Jersey Agricultural College—part of Rutgers University, the laboratory of the Johns Hopkins University of Baltimore, Maryland, and many others and it has invariably been proven to be of the highest grade.

The Wallkill Valley project and the drainage of the lands in question and the reclamation of other lands under the President's executive orders and policies will constitute the largest public works program ever undertaken in Ulster county.

The Ulster county humus has been featured by John Messmer and much has been sold through his Irvington, N. J., wards at Chancellor avenue and Colt street and through his New York offices. The humus was first discovered by Mr. Messmer in 1925. He purchased shortly before that the land known as the old Roeliff DuBois Estate, consisting of 255 acres, which was used for many years as a farm. Scientists say the meadowland stretching from the New Palms-Highland Highway No. 223 back for several miles is the bed of an old antediluvian lake and that the humus deposited there has been in process of disintegration and development for a period preceding possibly the glacial drift. It rests on a solid bed of blue clay and the borings made in some places show a depth of sixty nine feet without reaching the bottom of the deposits. It is one of the richest developments in the state of New York.

The need for humus, considering the drought situation in the west, the dust and sand storms of today, the wearing out of the land through erosion and by too frequent planting of the same crops, is more and more apparent. Humus is practically life giving property of the earth and Mr. Messmer, who discovered the humus on the old DuBois Farm likens it to the blood coursing through the human body.

Funeral Tuesday for Harry R. DuFlon

Funeral services for Harry Roland DuFlon, who died in the Medical Arts Sanatorium, New York city, Friday, will be held at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas, 48th street and Fifth avenue, New York, and at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon in St. James M. E. Church, Kingston. The services both in New York city and in Kingston, will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Frank B. Seeley of the Fair Street Reformed Church. At the services in St. James Church Dr. Seeley will be assisted by the Rev. Arthur G. Carroll, recently appointed to the St. James pastorate. Interment will be in Wiltwyck Cemetery. Mr. DuFlon's death was from pneumonia which developed following an operation.

Mr. DuFlon, who since his start with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., in Kingston in 1910, had advanced until at the time of his death he held the position of superintendent of agencies for the states of Illinois and Indiana, was located in Glens Falls as district manager of the company from 1917 to 1922 and the Glens Falls Post-Star says of him: "While in Glens Falls Mr. DuFlon was active in business, civic and fraternal affairs of this city. He was a charter member of the Glens Falls Rotary Club, and was secretary of the club for several years. He was also active in the Chamber of Commerce and the Glens Falls Country Club. An enthusiastic golfer and fisherman, Mr. DuFlon possessed a genial and likeable nature and created for himself a wide circle of friends. He was widely known as one of the most capable and successful men in the insurance business."

Homowack Grange Meeting
Homowack Grange of Spring Glen expects to hold a very interesting meeting on June 4. The first and second degree will be conferred by the degree team. A rose drill will be given by the newly organized drill team. During the lecture hour, a musical comedy, entitled "In a Garden," will be presented by members of the Dramatic and Glee clubs. All Grangers are welcomed.

Number Of Cases Announced As Settled

The negligence action brought in Supreme Court by J. Ellsworth Sniffin as administrator, etc., of Edward T. Sniffin against the Mountain View Coach Lines, Inc., and the driver of one of their buses, was announced as settled at the opening of court this morning. This was an action brought to recover damages for the death of Edward T. Sniffin, school boy, who was killed when struck by a bus as he was walking along the road from Malden to the Saugerties high school. A. J. Cook appeared for plaintiff.

Another negligence action brought by Roy DuBois against Bronx County Stables, Inc., and another was also settled. A contract action brought by Colonial City Chevrolet, Inc., against William M. Fitzpatrick was announced settled. Another action on the day calendar, Katherine Goodsell and another against Anderson Brick & Supply Company, Inc., was settled. No. 88, Sam Jacobowitz against Reid Ice Cream Corporation and another, a negligence action, was also settled.

The unusual number of settlements from the day calendar caused court to again break until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock after an action for conversion was tried before a jury. The Standard Oil Company sought to recover for 1,662 gallons of gasoline which had been delivered to Frank Ferrara back in 1930. Justice Schirck directed the jury to find a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $240.93. A. J. Cook, who appeared for defendant, before the case was tried withdrew the answer to the complaint and consented to plaintiff assessing damages.

The day calendar for Tuesday is: No. 814, 894, 182, 310, 202, 218, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 162, 197 and 216.

Jurors were excused until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

Slater Celebrated His 24th Anniversary

Alfred Slater of Hoffman street on Saturday completed 24 years of continuous service with the Binnewater Ice Company of which former Mayor Walter F. Crane is president. Mr. Slater came to Kingston from Union Center nearly a quarter of a century ago and entered the employ of the company as a driver of one of the horse-drawn ice trucks. For the past 16 years he has driven one of the company's big auto trucks, and during all those years he has never had an accident.

Mr. Slater during the past 24 years has served hundreds of families on his route with ice, and has proven a careful and efficient man, well liked not only by his fellow employees, but the public with whom he came in contact in the course of his duties.

He celebrated his anniversary on Saturday by working as usual and was again on the job at the usual time today.

broadcast Saturday, June 1. Contrary to previous announcement, Miss Bonesteel did not render a piano solo but did a song and tap dance routine which was well received.

Charged With Theft Of Pension Checks

Raymond Purdy, alias Wray Nathan Deere, was arrested Sunday night in this city on a warrant executed by Officers Harry Martin and McGrane and committed to the county jail to await a hearing today before Justice of the Peace Shults of the town of Woodstock. Purdy is alleged in an information sworn out by State Troopers took three pension checks from the mail box near his mother's home in Woodstock. The checks totaled $42.50 and were for his mother, his father and a boarder in the house. The case was investigated by Sergeant James Cunningham and Trooper McLennan who were expected to arraign Purdy later in the day on a forgery and larceny charge.

According to the story told the police Purdy took the checks Saturday from the mail box but informed his mother the checks had not come. He is alleged to have cashed one at Marlett's store and one at Everett & Treadwell's. When the checks failed to come his mother became suspicious and notified Sergeant Cunningham who in turn asked Sergeant Simpson of the Kingston police to try and locate Purdy. Purdy was arrested in the lower section of the city by the police.

Purdy who is 48 years old has been in trouble before with the authorities and served time at Dannemora.

Await Report On Redfern Hunt

Rochester, N. Y., June 3 (AP).—Dr. Frederick C. Redfern today said he has decided to take no further action toward organizing a search for his son, Paul, pending a check by the State Department of Tom Roch's story that he found the missing aviator living among Indians in a Southern American jungle.

"In general," Dr. Redfern said as he arrived here for a two months business visit, "I told State Department officials that I agreed to leave matters at rest until the government had an opportunity to receive replies from Port of Spain, Paramaribo and other places."

"What further steps will be taken depends largely upon the evidence brought out in the government's investigation and from communications from other sources."

City Officials at Mayors' Conference

Mayor Heiselman, Alderman-at-large John J. Schwenk, and Fire Chief Murphy Motored to Syracuse on Sunday—Will Return on Thursday.

Mayor C. J. Heiselman, Alderman-at-large John J. Schwenk and Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy motored to Syracuse on Sunday afternoon where the mayor and alderman-at-large will attend the sessions of the State Mayors' Conference which opened today, while Fire Chief Murphy will attend the State Fire Chiefs' convention of which he is president.

Mayor Heiselman will invite the State Mayors' Conference to meet in Kingston in 1936.

While the Mayor and alderman-at-large are absent from the city the city is without a governing head, but in case an emergency arose the city clerk is empowered to call a special meeting of the Common Council for the purpose of having the council elect one of its number to serve as acting mayor until the mayor and alderman-at-large return. This, of course, would only be done in case of an emergency.

'Big Guns' Of G. O. P. In Midwest Primed For 'Grass Roots' Session

Leaders of the Republican party in the middle west are "cocked and primed" to make the "grass roots" conference at Springfield, Ill., June 10 and 11, the first major offensive of a concentrated Republican force against the "new deal."

According to the conference call, delegates from nine middle-tier states will "take an inventory of the country's affairs, audit the books and make a report," issuing a declaration of principles designed to give immediate battle to the Roosevelt program.

JUSTUS L. JOHNSON of Iowa, Ill., chairman of the Illinois Republican state central committee, treasurer of the mid-western Republican conference, has been a tireless party worker since 1904, when he was elected secretary of his county convention. He believes the nation must look to the central western states for leadership. He urged the "grass roots" conference when party chieftains met at Topeka, Kas., and later at Excelsior Springs, Kas., and dictated the choice of Springfield for the meeting place. He is an attorney, clerk of the appellate court for the second Illinois district. Was elected by a majority of 61,000 votes in the year of the Democratic landslide.

DR. EDWARD B. CLEMENTS of Macon, Mo., has been swimming upstream, politically, in Missouri for nearly a half-century. With the patience of the true physician, he awaits "the recovery." Says the Missouri national committee chairman, leader of Missouri Republicans since he was elected state chairman in 1921, "When the time comes, the leader will appear." He does not expect a sweeping reorganization of the party in the meeting at the Lincoln shrine in Springfield, Ill. He says there will be an "adjustment" as "the platform will have to meet constantly changing conditions. Both political parties have had their funerals preached at various times, but in the whirligig of events they turned out pretty lively."

DR. EDWARD B. CLEMENTS

JOHN D. M. HAMILTON's voice, demanding Republican leadership in the middle west, may have given birth to the Lincoln shrine conference. This Topeka, Kas., lawyer, at 43, is called the "Kansas diplomat;" once was candidate for governor; is Kansas national committee chairman; and was named by National Chairman Henry P. Fletcher as his assistant in organizing the party for the coming presidential campaign. A close confidant of Gov. Alf. M. Landon and of William Allen White, the Emporia editor, Hamilton recently blazed a trail of speeches propounding a program for "restoring constitutional rights and monetary stability... equitable governmental assistance to agriculture and industry... return to the maintenance of separate branches of government."

JOHN D. M. HAMILTON

GEORGE A. BALL, Muncie, Ind., manufacturer, philanthropist, national committee chairman since 1931, is more than 70 years of age but that does not prevent his active participation in the affairs of his party. Keuka College in New York, Hillsdale College in Michigan, Ball Teachers' College in Muncie, Indiana University, Muncie's Ball Memorial Hospital, and the James Whitcomb Riley Memorial Hospital for Children at Indianapolis, all have been objects of Ball's philanthropy. His hobby is rare books and his library contains a complete set of original letters from all signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was born in Canandaigua, N. Y., moving to Muncie in 1887.

GEORGE A. BALL

Observers considered it probable, no matter what the accomplishments of the "grass roots" conference, that the get-together would go far toward determining trends of the Republican party in the central west. Among the subjects listed for discussion at the conference are agriculture, "preservation of the constitution," "Americanism and the Challenge of Communism."

Following is an introduction to eight of the leaders concerned with the conference:

A. B. FONTAINE is national committeeman from Wisconsin and lifelong resident of Green Bay where he engages in the practice of law. Since his election as national committeeman two years ago, he has been a frequent public critic of "new deal" policies, and has taken the lead in organizing young Republicans in Wisconsin. In 1928 Fontaine led a successful campaign to have Walter J. Kohler nominated for governor by the Republican convention. In 1932 he was successful in getting a majority of stalwart, or "regular," Republicans elected delegates to the national convention in Chicago. It was the first time in 26 years the progressive branch of the party hadn't been in majority. Fontaine was born in Green Bay in 1876, and graduated from the University of Wisconsin law school in 1895.

A. B. FONTAINE

HARRISON E. SPANGLER, chairman of the "grass roots" conference, likes to let others run for office while he sits back and pulls the wires. The 55-year-old Cedar Rapids attorney and national committeeman for Iowa, has been active in politics almost since boyhood. He has been offered and has refused a district court judgeship and post in the department of justice. Was a partner of the late James W. Good, secretary of war under President Hoover. Spangler was member of the executive committee in Hoover's 1932 campaign and is close personal friend of the former President. Golfing, breeding saddle horses and Irish terriers are his hobbies.

HARRISON E. SPANGLER

MRS. MANLEY L. FOSSEEN, Minneapolis national committeewoman for 12 years, has been prominent in the campaigns of Harding, Coolidge and Hoover. Mrs. Fosseen entered politics through the women's suffrage movement. And was one of the first in the nation to be given recognition by her party. She was co-chairman of the western speakers' bureau in 1920 and was on the arrangements committee for the Kansas City Convention in 1928. She dresses smartly, is an able public speaker with a breezy, confident attitude on the platform. She is active in civic and welfare work, and wife of a municipal judge.

ROBERT G. SIMMONS, who became a Nebraska congressman at the age of 31, and kept the job 10 years, would like to junk the "new deal" and replace it with Republican principles and policies. Since his series of 10 debates last year with Senator E. R. Burke (D-Neb.), he has been an active critic of administration plans. Simmons was born in a sod house in Scotts Bluff county in 1891, the son of a carpenter. A year after his graduation from the University of Nebraska in 1915, he became Scotts Bluff county attorney. The following year he joined the air service. Simmons was elected state commander of the American Legion in 1920 and was named president of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association in 1921 before going to congress the following year.

Biggest Peace Time Navy Bill on Way

Washington, June 3 (AP)—The Democratic leadership hopes to speed the biggest peace-time navy appropriation bill to the White House before the week is out. Although predictions were withheld pending the decision of Senate and House conferees named to reconcile differences between the two bodies on the $450,000,000 measure, there were indications today that it would carry the Senate's more liberal allowance for starting construction of 24 new ships.

Chairman Cary (D-Ky.) of a House appropriations subcommittee handling the bill said there was "not going to be much difficulty" over the $1,690,000 added by the Senate.

The Senate also increased approximately $5,000,000 to $8,000,000 the amount that may be spent in contracting for airplanes in the fiscal year 1936.

The naval measure will round out the United States' biggest military spending programs since the World War.

Mrs. Mary Legg To Receive Degree

Mrs. Mary Legg of Main street, Port Ewen, will receive her A. B. degree from President Nicholas Murray Butler at the annual commencement exercises of Columbia University, New York city, Tuesday, June 4. Mrs. Legg is a graduate of Barnard College where she majored in Sociology. In her senior year, she has been an honorary member of Wigs and Cues, the dramatic club, has achieved "expert" rank in swimming and took a prominent part in the Creek Games swimming tournament.

Other events which Mrs. Legg will attend during the annual Senior Week at Barnard include the traditional Step Singing, Baccalaureate Service and Tea, Senior Tea Dance, Senior Ball, Ivy Ceremony, Class Day Exercises and Senior Banquet.

Graduates from Barnard College

Miss Kathryn Heaver, daughter of James S. Heaver, of 218 Smith avenue, will receive her A. B. degree from President Nicholas Murray Butler at the annual commencement exercises of Columbia University, New York city, on Tuesday, June 4. Miss Heaver is a graduate of Barnard College where she majored in English literature.

Other events of the annual Senior Week which Miss Heaver will attend include the traditional Step Singing, Baccalaureate Service and Tea, Senior Tea Dance, Senior Ball, Ivy Ceremony, Class Day Exercises and Senior Banquet.

Philaena Florio.

Director Home Company

There will be a regular meeting of Excelsior Home Company tonight at 8 o'clock at the rooms, and Tuesday evening there will be a full band rehearsal at the same hour at the rooms on Hurley avenue.

Great Western Plains Area Lists 128 Dead, Huge Property Loss

Six States Have Total of $12,000,000 Damage as Plans for Reconstruction are Begun—Central Nebraska Hardest Hit.

Oxford, Neb., June 3 (AP)—Harassed by fears of new floods, the western great plains area today counted its dead from raging waters of the past week at 128, fixed its property damage in six states at more than $12,000,000 and plunged into the work of reconstruction.

South Central Nebraska was the hardest hit. Stricken simultaneously by the twin disasters of Tornado and the Republican river leaping out of its banks over a 200 mile area, its dead numbered 86. Today it watched with apprehension as the North and South Platte rivers swept toward a junction in the western part of the state.

Colorado had 19 known dead, Kansas 3, Wyoming 7, Texas 5, and Missouri 2.

Kansas stewed with alarm the full wash of the overburdened Republican river as it rolled southward from Nebraska.

Hampered by the breakdown of communication facilities, relief workers could make only rough estimates of the complete flood damage. Duplications of death reports made tabulating difficult.

J. M. Power of St. Louis, directing Red Cross work, said "It will be at least a week before the full number of dead and injured is known." Power said an incomplete but official survey by Red Cross chapters showed at least 1,000 families homeless.

Reports of heavy livestock casualties were uniform throughout the valley.

The only property damage estimate made by R. R. Hartford, an engineer, before the torrent completed its race through Nebraska and entered Kansas, was more than $12,000,000.

State Representative Charles R. Herrick of Curtis said tornado and flood damage in Frontier county alone would reach a million dollars. Business in the valley was almost at a standstill.

Receding waters of the mad Republican river disclosed an ugly landscape of ravines, slime, and debris. Reconstruction efforts included disease prevention, power and communication restoration and rebuilding of water supplies.

The South Platte river flooded nine city blocks at Omaha and the North Platte washed out some squatters' homes at Scottsbluff.

First Dutch Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Reformed Dutch Church will meet Wednesday, June 5, at the manse at 52 Main street. As this is the last meeting of the season, a large attendance is requested. Arrangements for the sale of the blind will be made and Mrs. Williams Longyear will be the business with Mrs. Van Anden.

National Flower Shut-in Day June 10

David Burgevin of the Valentin Burgevin Co., Inc., president of the local group of florists, announces that Monday, June 10, will be observed as National Flower Shut-in Day.

Florists all over the country on that day, will without charge and with great satisfaction and pleasure, deliver to any bona fide shut-in whom they can reach in this immediate vicinity, flowers or a plant.

This happy thought on the part of florists of the country was made concrete in the month of June because of the profusion of flowers in that month, quite beyond the capability of salesmen to entirely dispose of. That is then, no gift, but the assembling and making into attractive packages of the flowers or plants and the delivery of the same is indeed a gift of moment.

So, if there are shut-ins in Kingston and nearby who can write and ask for the flowers, or can find some friend to notify the Kingston florists or Mr. Burgevin of the address of such person, they will receive June flowers on June 10 without cost and with pleasure from the donor.

Last year Mr. Burgevin sent out some 200 such floral gifts and the memory of that joy is fresh in the hearts of the recipients who are asking again for the same privilege.

To those well and about, is given the task of informing Mr. Burgevin of any shut-ins they know who should be remembered.

Garbo Plays Hide And Seek in Chicago

Chicago, June 3 (AP)—Greta Garbo, enigmatic Swedish motion picture star, continued her journey toward New York and her native Sweden today after an hour and 45 minutes between trains in Chicago, during which time she almost—but not quite—evaded pursuers.

Anticipating an intrusion upon her privacy upon her arrival from California aboard the Santa Fe "Chief," Miss Garbo and a male traveling companion left the train at the downtown station.

Her next appearance was at the union station in Chicago, 10 minutes before the Manhattan Limited of the Pennsylvania left for New York.

She was first observed peering around a corner. Then, covering her face with her hand, she made a dash for the waiting train.

Strawberry Shortcake.

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Presbyterian Church will build a strawberry shortcake supper Friday evening, June 7, and the patronage of the public will be appreciated. The menu: Ham, roast beef, scalloped potatoes, tomato and cucumber salad, radishes, cottage cheese, strawberry shortcake, rolls and white bread, tea, coffee, milk.

Stewart Is Held on Forgery Charge Here

Stone Ridge Man Accused of Forging a Check for $7—Is Held to Await Grand Jury Action—Other Police Court Cases.

William Stewart, 45, of Stone Ridge, was arraigned before Judge Culliton in police court this morning on a charge of forgery in the second degree. Stewart waived examination and was held to await the action of the grand jury. He is accused of making out a check to himself and signing it with the name "E. M. Burrows." The check was for $7. Stewart was arrested Sunday morning on a vagrancy charge also, but was not arraigned in that charge.

William Best and John Kelder staged a street fight downtown early this morning and were arrested. They were each fined $5.

Frank Smith, 24, of this city, arrested for public intoxication, promised to get out of town this morning if given a suspended sentence. Judge Culliton granted his plea.

Louis Carplino, arrested Sunday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct on Broadway, was fined $5. The police said that he was challenging two other men to a fight when arrested.

Everett Sampson, a negro, of Hunter street, was fined $5 for public intoxication on Murray street.

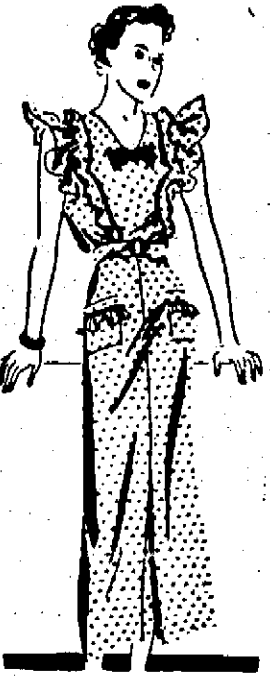

Authorities disagree as to whether they could call it the Sick Chicken Case or the Sick Eagle Case.

Water Board Defers Action on Employees

The Board of Water Commissioners held its annual meeting on Saturday afternoon at the city hall and elected Harry H. Flemming as president, to succeed James F. Dwyer, whose term of office had expired. The board also elected Robert G. Groves as secretary. Mr. Groves was appointed on Friday to the board to succeed Mr. Dwyer.

The board deferred action on appointing its employees until the next meeting. All employees of the board, including superintendent, are appointed at the pleasure of the board.

BRA-TUCK

The beauty of the rich new Jantzen Kava-Knit fabric and simplicity of design are strikingly combined in the new Bra-Tuck. There's a new style accent in the smart tuck design at the bust giving a pleasing youthful effect to the brassiere lines. Because of the exclusive knitting process used by Jantzen, natural line figure control to a surprising degree is made possible. The Bra-Tuck molds the body gently but firmly. For sun-bathing a Shoulder cord permits dropping the straps with perfect modesty for shoulder tan.

A horse can't pull while kicking, this fact I merely mention—And he can't kick while pulling which is my chief contention.

Voice (over the telephone)—Are you the game warden?
Game Warden—Yes, ma'am.
Voice—Well, I am so thankful I have the right person at last. Would you mind suggesting some nice games suitable for children between the ages of ten and fourteen?

You may not get all that is coming to you in this world—but look out for the next!

Mistress—But is he a good young man?
Maid—Good? Why, ma'am, last time he was in the penitentiary the governor took eight months off his sentence for good behavior.

The stork doesn't merely visit some homes, it just seems to live there.

Youth—Oh, darling, how can I leave you?
Girl Friend—Well, if you are afraid father may be laying for you out in the hall, you might jump out the window.

It may be very well to take things as they come, but you'll get more if you go after them.

Friend—Let's get our wives together tonight and have a big evening.
Man—O. K. Where shall we leave them?

If your luck isn't what it should be, try putting a "P" in front of it.

Mrs. Second—My first husband was a perfect saint.
Her Second—Then you'll never see him again.

We know a man who says his good wife is like an umbrella because he can shut her up whenever he likes.

Tourist (in mountains)—This is a wonderful place. I'm sure I can get plenty of ozone here!

Native—Yes, stranger, all you have to do is to leave a jug and a half-dollar at the side of the road. Go away for five minutes and when you come back the money will be gone and the jug will be full.

We don't feel any need for new money. Just give some of us a chance to try this money we now have.

Negro Woman (in doctor's office)—Doc, I've come to get vaccinated.
Doctor—All right, I'll have to vaccinate you in the laboratory.

Negro Woman—No, doc, I don't want it on my arm.
Doctor—Ah, you want it on my arm.

Soldiers always obey. You see, the captain never pleads with them to be nice or offers them a dime if they're good.

Sister's Beau—You didn't expect to see me tonight, did you?
Sister's Little Brother—No. Neither did my sister. She didn't put your picture on the piano until after you rang the doorbell.

Radio comedians will soon retire from the air for the summer, to return in the fall when the chestnut season opens.

First Gossip—Why did they separate?
Second Gossip—Nobody knows.
First Gossip—Oh, isn't that just terrible?

A man admires the woman who makes him think, but he keeps away from her. He likes the woman who makes him laugh; he loves the girl who hurts him. But he marries the woman who flatters him.

Just around the corner happy days and fair
Wait for your arrival—you will soon be there.
Just around the corner—sing it in your soul!

Press on! Do not falter! You will reach the goal!

New Suior—I wish to marry your daughter.
Father of Movie Blonde—Can you divorce her in the manner in which she has been accustomed?

The path of duty runs parallel with the road to happiness.

Attends Meeting of Van Voorhees Assoc.

Arthur E. Fronenfeld of this city has returned from Brooklyn where on Saturday and Sunday he attended the annual meeting of the Van Voorhees Association of which he is a member.

In 1660 Steven Coerten, his wife and seven children came to Brooklyn and settled in Flatlands. Saturday and Sunday the Van Voorhees Association, composed of about 450 descendants of Steven Coerten, celebrated the 275th anniversary of his coming to New Netherlands.

More than 150 members of the association, together with friends, attended a devotional service in Steven Coerten's honor at the Flatlands Dutch Reformed church, in which he later became elder and deacon. A bronze tablet placed there to commemorate the anniversary of his arrival was unveiled by James Voorhees, the eighth generation of the family, who still resides in the neighborhood.

A historical handbook of the Van Voorhees family, which goes back to a period prior to the departure of the Coerten family from the province of Drenthe in Holland was compiled and distributed during the session.

The book was compiled and edited by Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees, president of the association, who presided at the services. Earlier in the afternoon various descendants of the family traced the history of Dutch in America. At the devotional services Saturday the contributions of the family to the field of education was enumerated by Dr. Harold O. Voorhees, secretary of New York University. Sunday a Thanksgiving service was held at the church.

Established in 1932, the Van Voorhees Association was established in January 1932, to arrange fitting exercises for yesterday's anniversary celebration. It was unanimously decided to continue the association for the purpose of keeping together and carrying on the traditions of the family.

It was further decided to hold a rally at Van Voorhees Park on August 31. The park is located near High Bridge, N. J., and is part of the estate of Foster Voorhees, a former Governor of New Jersey.

It was also decided to publish a complete genealogy in 1938. The handbook distributed yesterday is but a furtherance of a genealogy printed in 1885 by Elias W. Van Voorhis.

Officers Re-elected.

The present officers of the association were also re-elected. They are the Rev. Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees, president; Sadie Estelle Voorhees, vice-president; Harry Stephen Voorhees, secretary; and Wheeler N. Voorhees, treasurer.

It was also decided to reappoint the members of the executive committee who are Dr. Irving Wilkin Voorhees, Ralph Spencer Voorhees and Stephen Robin Voris.

The members who attended yesterday's celebration came from five states, the farthest being Grants Pass, Ore. Amos E. Voorhees, publisher of a newspaper in Oregon, made that trip.

TO CONDUCT SUMMER STAY-AT-HOME CAMP.

The local Y. W. C. A. will again conduct a summer stay-at-home camp, a project inaugurated last summer, which proved to be most worthwhile and enjoyable for the younger group of the association.

The camp will open on Tuesday, July 9, and continue for three weeks, offering to children in town, most of the advantages of regular camps, including swimming, tennis, dramatics, general recreation, handcraft, music, all under the supervision of the Y. W. staff and qualified counselors. The program will be run four days a week, with the children transported on Tuesdays and Thursdays to Spring Lake, while Wednesdays and Fridays their projects will be held at the Y. W. C. A. A very nominal fee is charged to cover the cost of swimming and equipment.

Grade school girls of the community, over nine years of age, will be accepted, and those interested are asked to get in touch with the local office as early as possible, as it may be necessary to limit the number of registrations that can be received. The committee in charge of plans is composed of Mrs. G. N. Wood, Mrs. Frederic Holcomb, Mrs. A. Noble Graham, Mrs. Cornelius Treadwell, Miss Katherine Millard, Mrs. John W. Matthews, Miss Emily Hoyrath and the Y staff.

King George at Trooping of Colors

By BURDETTE T. JOHNS
Associated Press Foreign Staff

London, June 3 (AP)—King George V, astride a bay horse, rode today with his four sons at the head of a column of crack cavalry and foot soldiers in the ancient ceremony of trooping the colors as a mark of his completion of the Biblical span of three score years and ten.

All the British empire celebrated the king's seventieth birthday anniversary as a holiday, and the ceremonies here centered on the king himself.

His majesty participated in the trooping wearing the scarlet and gold uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Irish Guards. He saluted right and left with a white gloved hand as he rode from Buckingham Palace to the horseguards parade and back again.

From all sides came from the crowds, cries of "God bless you, sir!" "Many happy returns!" "Long may you live!"

The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Gloucester, and the Duke of Kent, like their father, wore military uniforms and the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter. It was the first time all four sons had participated with their father in such a ceremony.

No Charges

High Point, N. C., June 3 (AP)—Solicitor Gaston A. Johnson indicated today no charge would be brought against J. R. Riggs, 36-year-old filling station operator who said he had his son "brucify" him on a crude cross of boards.

Child Training Called Important In Warring On Kidnap Menace

By KATHARINE F. LENROOT

(Chief of the Children's Bureau (Written For The Associated Press))

Washington (AP).—There is no magic formula by which parents may protect their children against kidnaping. But there are a few simple precautions which any parent can and should observe.

The precautions are well enough known, but often in the rush of other affairs, they are neglected. They are largely a matter of child care and training.

"Matter of Course"

Training

Children should be cautioned against accepting favors from strangers, against following people who offer them an automobile ride, a visit to the movies or any kind of party or treat.

Such training should be given simply as a matter of course. Care should be taken in giving it not to make children self-conscious and not to build up an attitude of fear, since fear is often found the cause of undesirable emotional reactions.

Children should be taught to look on the policeman as a friend who will help in trouble. Some parents make their children afraid of policemen by the threat, "The policeman

Obtain Fingerprints

It is advisable to teach children at the earliest possible age to give clear answers when asked to tell their names. Many children who stray, run away or get lost could be returned to their homes much sooner if they were able to give their own and their parents' name, their address and home telephone number.

Cooperation between home and school would be helpful. When the teacher gets a phone message asking that a child be sent home it is wise to wait a few minutes and call the child's home to check on the genuineness of the request.

Foot-prints and fingerprints of infants, if not made as a matter of routine by the hospital after birth, should be obtained by the parents.

Preventive Work

Parents will also be working for the protection of their children if they take an active interest in the whole question of law enforcement and strive to promote high standards of public administration.

Preventive work, based on constructive activities for young people and intelligent treatment of youthful delinquents are, in the last analysis, among the most effective means of wiping out crime and racketeering.

MODES OF THE MOMENT

Flattering—these dramatic hats for summer afternoons.

Liana Merwin

Nothing is quite so pretty as these large and dramatic portrait hats used to top off fluttering chiffon, or crisp mouseline de sole semi-formal frocks.

Flowers, ribbons and bows trim the dressier hats in a very feminine manner. And for an unusual touch, vegetables and fruit made of tiny feathers in gay colors dare to garnish some of the newer adaptations of imports.

Straws (take in Leghorn, Tuscan, Italian Milan, Shantung Baku and Swiss hair).

The glorious formal afternoon hat shown above is of Swiss hair in fuchista color. Wide bands of velvet ribbon in American beauty shade and bracth blooms supply the top brim interest, while a sizeable bow of the velvet ribbon nestles under the brim at left side.

Slightly less dressy is the large Tuscan straw for wear with prints and chiffons. The crown and bow use navy bengaline for contrast and effective trimming.

This combining of fabrics with straw is much used. Starched lace, net velvet, organdy, linen, bengaline, taffeta and pique are some of the fabrics that make these interesting combinations.

BARBARA BELL FASHION PATTERNS

Pattern No. 1671-B

A Dress-Up Frock for the Woman Who Is No Longer Young

The silhouettes for summer afternoon are very soft in effect. Bodices are gently bloused, sleeves are very full and often circular, and skirts are definitely wider, but with the fulness controlled at the waist and hips by a fitted yoke, shirring or pleats. This is a very flattering line for short women, as well as their taller sisters.

Today's dress includes all these high points of the new collections. The pointed yoke of the blouse is very flattering, and the softly draped neckline, held with a ribbon tie is becoming to almost every woman. In this case, inserts at the sides of the skirt provide the soft, full line, the hips being smooth and trim. Circular sleeves, very wide at the elbow, finish a delightful frock.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1671-B is designed in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 1/4 yards of 36-inch material, and 1 1/2 yards of ribbon.

SEND FOR THE BARBARA BELL PATTERN BOOK. Make yourself attractive, practical and becoming clothes selecting designs from the one hundred and four Barbara Bell planned, easy-to-make patterns. Interesting and exclusive fashions for little children and the difficult junior age; slenderizing, well cut patterns for the mature figure; afternoon dresses for the most particular young women and matrons and other patterns for special occasions are all to be found in the BARBARA BELL PATTERN BOOK. ## She Calls it a Cook's Tour

NOBODY thought Katherine would make a very good wife. She seemed too frivolous. Always made a game out of everything. Hadn't a practical thought in her head—so it seemed.

Maybe that's why she does make Ed such a good wife. You still wouldn't think she was serious about a thing. Yet she must be. Because you've never seen a house kept better in your life. Or a budget balanced more neatly.

Most women come home from shopping all tired out. Not Katherine! She makes a grand game of it... calls it her weekly "Cook's Tour." She pores over her newspaper like a travel map... charts a course that takes her to bargain ports... and gets there without one wasted step.

How? She follows the advertisements. Watches them as closely as a sailor watches his compass. And she gets fun out of it all... But who wouldn't, with a happy home like hers and her knack for saving up money!

Bouissou's Voice May Prove Asset In His New Office

Paris (AP)—As premier of France a critical time, Fernand Bouissou may find his voice one of his best assets.

Powerful as a big for him in the harbor of his home city, Marseille, he has used it many a time to quell parliamentary storms with a few terse commands.

When he was president of the chamber of deputies, a position he held from 1928 to a few days ago, when he was elevated to the premiership following the fall of the cabinet of Laval, Bouissou made no bones about calling the opposition to task by name.

There was no "gentleman from the Seine" or any such circumlocution for him. One day he gave an ever-protesting communist parliamentarian the following injunction: "Cachin, thou wilt immediately buckle for me that mug of yours—quite de suite!"

Once he is said to have told former premier Laval: "Be thou quiet, my little one; thou art only a senator, and therefore only a guest in this assembly!"

As premier, the 60-year-old leader has taken command of perhaps the greatest battle of his long career in politics—the fight to keep the franc

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROSS H. COCHRAN
HOLLYWOOD—Movie land short story:

In 1929, producer Jesse Lasky looked about him in Hollywood, saw that a great change had come upon the screen, and that talking pictures would supplant the silent.

From Europe Lasky, then chief of production at Paramount, brought two discoveries who could talk.

One of them was a dashing fellow from the Paris music halls. He had a way with him, and when he talked and sang and made love to beautiful ladies on the screen he became a sensation.

The other was a handsome Latin youth who could sing, but could not talk—in English—so well. His appearance in Hollywood films were few and inconsequential. He went away.

The Picture Changes

The first, Maurice Chevalier, left Hollywood recently. He had run his course of box-office popularity. He had done well—perhaps was glad to leave.

The second, Nino Martini, made his return as Chevalier was leaving.

from devaluation.

Born in Algeria.

It was this fight that felled the Flaminio government. The former premier asked for dictatorial powers; the chamber of deputies voted lack of confidence.

Bouissou, born in Constantine, Algeria, has been a deputy for Marseille since 1909. He was a loyal member of the socialist party but resigned from it in 1934 following the February riots. He is a jovial person, but a strict disciplinarian when necessary. During the war, Bouissou, a business man and shipper, served as government commissioner for maritime transports and of the merchant marine.

Nino had been pursuing a concert and operatic career.

Meanwhile, a new name, new voice had come to the screen. The voices sang old melodies new to the screen. Producers had changed affiliations. Jesse Lasky had become an independent producer for Fox.

Symphony Exploited

While grand opera selections are fairly common in films now, and films generally are given symphonic scores, the first picture to exploit a symphony orchestra is the Katharine Hepburn-Charles Boyer vehicle, "Break of Hearts."

The French star, Boyer, portrays a famous conductor with whom the idealistic young composer, Miss Hepburn, falls in love. They marry, are separated by her hasty flight at the first intimation that he has returned to his old life of many loves, and finally are reconciled when she realizes that his music has failed him because of his need for her. John Boal as Boyer's friend makes an engaging third corner for the triangle.

Missionary Convention.

The annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Kingston district will be held at Cairo, N. Y., in the Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday, June 4. Morning session, 10:15; afternoon session 1:30. Miss Helen Main Edick, of the Italian Settlement, Utica, N. Y., will be the speaker.

MAVERICK SCHOOL OF THEATRE ANNOUNCED

Woodstock, June 3—Elizabeth B. Grimbail, associate director with Robert Elwyn of the Maverick Theatre and director of the New York School of the Theatre, announces summer classes in her school in Woodstock, during the playing season of the Maverick Theatre company. Classes will be held by arrangement with Hervey White in the Music Hall and production classes held in the workshop of the theatre.

The workshop has been planned under Miss Grimbail's supervision and the school will be in charge of Miss Mildred Whitney, Broadway actress and director who is also a member of the company. The curriculum includes acting techniques, dancing and "plastique," make-up, production of a student play, and opportunities to participate and assist in all phases of the professional productions. Most students enter for a 10 weeks session but students are accepted for a month's work or for special classes. The production work which will be of particular interest to teachers who produce plays, will be under the supervision of R. Birrell Rawls, technical director of the Maverick Theatre, who has been technical director for Katherine Cornell, Charles Hopkins and Elmer Rice.

Miss Whitney has had wide Broadway experience, having played under the direction of Maurice Browne and Arthur Hopkins and appeared with John Barrymore and Florence Reed. Miss Whitney is also an experienced stage director and teacher. Her particular work in the school is dramatic technique and rehearsal and direction of students' plays. Mary Farrell, in charge of Plastique and Stage Dancing, has behind her years of training and experience as a dancer as well as an actress. Stage design will be taken care of by Lloyd Hallock, who is designing for the Maverick Theatre. The work will be extremely practical and classes will open on July 1. All applications for entering the school up to that time should go to the New York School of the Theatre, Carnegie Hall, New York.

Miss Grimbail, internationally known as a director of plays and pageants and a teacher, is on the staff of the Mozarteum Academy in Salzburg, Austria, as director of the American Theatrical Seminar there. She has placed many students in the profession who have made a success of the stage and in pictures, notably among those is Helen Cabagan, dramatic and motion picture star. Miss Grimbail will be in Woodstock to open the school session and outline the work and for the opening of the Maverick Theatre season.

ST. REMY

St. Remy, June 3—Mrs. Harry Ellsworth has some very pretty iris that is much admired by the passers-by.

The cemetery is presenting a fine appearance after the many decorations.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet Thursday in the Sunday school room at 2:30 p. m. A pot luck dinner will be served. As this is the last meeting for the summer it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Miss Serena DeGraff is the guest of Mrs. Kathryn Sutton.

Mrs. Tracy Van Vleet has some beautiful double Oriental poppies in bloom as well as many other pretty flowers.

At The Theatres

Today

Broadway: "Go Into Your Dance." That famous theatrical combination of Al Jolson and Ruby Keeler combine their many talents for the first time in a motion picture and the result, as was to be expected, is a peppy, rollicking, elaborate story of stage life as it actually is lived by those who know and love the profession. The entire production was fitted to Jolson and Keeler and they prove their ability many times during the film. Miss Keeler has many opportunities to dance and she scores her biggest talkie hit in this show while Al Jolson sings and pleads his way through the show in his most appealing manner. There isn't a dull moment in this hit, for it is alive with dancing, singing and humor. The dialogue is consistently good, the songs, one especially called "A Latin from Manhattan," are well done and lively, and a very capable cast work hard to keep up with the stiff pace set by the stars of the production. One of the best of the musicals.

Orpheum: "Ruggles of Red Gap." Charles Laughton, Mary Boland, Charles Ruggles and Zasu Pitts all help to make this talkie an outstanding comedy hit, but Mr. Laughton in the title role, steals the entire production with an impressive display of talent in the role of an English butler who is forced through circumstances to make his home in the wild and woolly west of yesterday. Here he discovers that all men are of equal merit and he proceeds to overcome the conventions he was born with in the light of his new freedom. A remarkable picture of the highest type.

Kingston: "The Bride of Frankenstein." It seems that even a mechanical man must have a love life. Dr. Frankenstein's monster, who has been seen on the screen before in his terrifying yet odd resemblance to a gigantic toy soldier, jerks his way through another series of adventures in the person of Boris Karloff. This show is as weird and uncanny as its predecessor, and the monster even talks for the first time. But greatest of all exciting moments in the show comes during the time the worthy creators of the mechanical man try to and succeed in fashioning him a mate. Against a background of the most elaborate machinery ever seen in a motion picture, with dazzling lights, rumbles, hisses, and a general air of world shaking events in the making, a mechanical woman comes to life to take her place beside the monster of Frankenstein's fashioning. The show is entirely unbelievable but it is so well done that its entertainment value is never lost. The photography is exceptional and the real reason for the picture's success, and the work of Valerie Hobson, Colin Clive, Elsa Lancaster and Una O'Connor is brilliant.

Women's Groups Aid In Better Housing Plan

Newly organized women's groups in communities throughout the United States are arranging ceremonies to be held in connection with the simultaneous opening of model homes in hundreds of cities on Better Housing Day, June 15, according to the Federal Housing Administration.

These groups, made up of representatives of civic, social, church, and service organizations, are active in many ways in connection with local Better Housing Programs. Through their efforts, local prize money is being offered to community winners in the Better Housing essay contest. They staff booths and distribute literature at garden and building shows. They take charge of information booths and displays at Better Homes Institutes.

Organization of women's groups in the states is under the direction of Mrs. Florence Jones Vining, who on February 15 was appointed assistant to William D. Flanders, director of the field division. The purpose in creating a woman's section within the division is to educate housewives on the operation of the Better Housing program and to obtain their aid in improving living standards.

In rural communities, women's divisions are being organized by state extension departments and home demonstration agents.

Talks before women's clubs, parent-teacher associations, etc., and radio addresses, form an important part of the work of these groups.

Governor Asks Mothers to Aid Essay Contest

Mothers of school children in Ohio have been asked by Gov. Martin J. Davey to urge their children to participate in the national essay contest being sponsored by the Federal Housing Administration.

The Governor, in a statement, pointed out that the social advantages to be derived by a study of the housing program are limitless, and that the economic advantage is found in the general stimulation of industry.

Governor Davey said in part: "Actually, this is a contest in which nobody can lose. The exhaustive study of the better-housing program on the part of school children will not only have a beneficial effect upon them, it will also concentrate the attention of their parents on a project that should contribute much to our national happiness."

Historic Exhibit.

An ancient surveying instrument, used first in 1776 to survey home sites in Philadelphia, was on display in the Federal Housing Administration's booth at the Tulsa World Magic Empire Exhibit held in that city recently. The members of the women's division in that district staffed the booth during the course of the show.

Club Gives Pledge To Repair Building

The Wednesday Club of St. Louis has approved a pledge of $5,000 to repair and modernize its club building, according to woman field representative for that district of the Federal Housing Administration. To further cooperate with the administration, the secretary of the club committee has been instructed to send a letter to members throughout the state, urging that a substantial amount be pledged for repairs and improvements of clubs. The Wednesday Club, which has a membership of 500, is affiliated with the Federal Federation of Women's Clubs.

Tips on How and What to Improve

To Conceal Stacks

Where a plumbing stack or a soil pipe of large diameter must be concealed in a wall, it is considered good practice to use framing members 6 or 8 inches in size instead of the conventional 2 by 4's. This detracts from the annoyance of a noisy pipe and provides additional exterior wall space. Better ventilation is permitted to that there is no danger of the wall becoming damp from condensation.

Windproofing

It is good practice to lay one or two thicknesses of a good quality building paper between the sheathing and exterior siding to make a tight, windproof wall. Match sheathing which fits tightly, because of its design and manufacture, is also excellent in preventing outside air penetrating the joints. The building paper laid over this type of sheathing with the edges of the paper overlapping gives excellent protection.

Copper Use

Where the edges of wood shingles abut or overlap at the hip joints of a roof, it is considered good practice to use small strips of copper or other corrosion-resistant flashing. They should be bent and nailed in place to cover the joint between the shingles.

Store Cooperates

One of the largest department stores in Columbus, Ohio, is cooperating with the Federal Housing Administration by regularly presenting "Better Homes and Gardens" programs in its auditorium. This work is being done through the efforts of the woman field representative in that district. After these programs, various booklets of the Federal Housing Administration are distributed.

The St. Francis, Kansas, Herald reports that the farmers in that vicinity have been getting 40 miles an hour out of their windmills. But how many miles to the gallon?

This OPPORTUNITY To BUILD and SAVE May Never Come Again!

Right now is the time to start building your home. Wonderful sites can be picked up at bargain figures. Good materials are still low priced. Labor is plentiful.

A new home is very easy to finance. You may still think of a home as a CAPITAL INVESTMENT. Perhaps you think you cannot afford one. Your architect, contractor or realtor will show you how a fine residence can be built and paid for OUT OF INCOME—just as you now pay rent.

A new home is a "CAPITAL INVESTMENT" in the same sense—it's a splendid one! For you can never go wrong by buying property in a low-price market, improving it and HOLDING ON TO IT.

A new home will speed up all kinds of business. When you build you help create a demand for capital goods—steel, lumber, copper, cement, glass. You are employing men in factories, forests, mines.

And finally remember that YOUR OWN HOME is a hobby as well as a haven. It's not only something to live in. It's something to live for.

Rural Women Grasp Repair Plan's Value

Women of the rural districts of the United States find that the Modernization Credit Plan of the National Housing Act offers an opportunity to bring the equipment of their homes up to date.

A recent survey of rural homes in the country showed that a total of $444,857 homes did not have electricity, as compared to 4,087,282 houses which were wired. This means that not only are these homes denied the convenience of electric lighting, but that the numerous other appliances, such as irons, vacuum cleaners, etc., which are taken for granted in millions of homes throughout the United States, are unavailable to these people.

Barn Lighting

Electrification of property may be accomplished with the aid of the Modernization Credit Plan, also making it possible for the barn and other outbuildings to be lighted as well as for lights to be placed about the barnyard. Elimination of the inconvenience and fire hazards of lanterns would greatly facilitate the chores which must be done after dark.

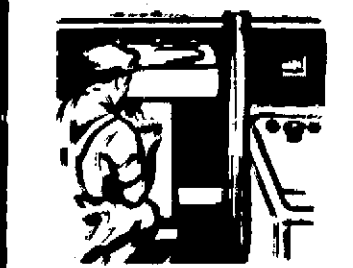

Running water and drainage systems may also be provided through the Modernization Credit Plan. A number of homes have a pump in the house but no means of disposing of waste water.

Under the special arrangements for farmers, funds obtained through lending agencies offering modernization credit service are liquidated through seasonal payments arranged in accordance with anticipated returns from farm crops.

Wisconsin's Mineral Products

Principal nonmetallic products of Wisconsin are stone, sand and gravel, lime and clay, while principal metallic products are iron ore, lead and zinc. In order of value, leading mineral products are stone, sand and gravel, iron ore, and clay products. Other minerals which make up the mineral resources of the state include dolomite, granite, quartzite, trap, sandstone, mineral wool, talc and soapstone, and coal.

MODERN PLUMBING

Don't live with an old-fashioned bathroom, when it costs so little to have a new one. Modern bathroom equipment will comfort you. Plumbing, repairs and new heating installations.

Daughter's Room Beautified By Careful Modernization

There comes a time in the life of every family when the growing daughter demands a grown-up bedroom. Only recently she scoffed at the nursery which she had occupied since childhood, and the babyish frills were removed. But now, with the important interests of high school at hand and a college career soon to follow, she demands that her position as young lady of the household be recognized.

The wise mother looks upon this as a homemaking instinct important to every woman and will direct her best talents to encouraging the trait. The process need not be expensive to be attractive, and a modernization loan, so easily obtainable from any lending agency approved by the Federal Housing Administration, can be called upon once father's consent to the plan has been received. (With mother and daughter working together this should be easily obtained.)

What might easily have been an awkward corner in the room which was the original nursery has, with a little ingenuity and forethought, been turned into an attractive bed alcove. In papering the walls it was decided to finish the entire alcove with ceiling paper, thereby giving an effect of light and offering a pleasing contrast to the balance of the room.

Bookcases were built in at either end of the alcove, leaving space for beds with a bedside table between. The expense of a dressing table was saved and at the same time the charm of the room was increased by building in a dressing shelf with swinging arms to which the draperies were fastened.

The radiator under the window was hidden under a cover, installed at little expense. A container in the top holds water, serving the double purpose of avoiding too dry a temperature and with the cover forming an extra table where books or trinkets may be placed.

The closet in the room was enlarged and a set of drawers installed where shoes could be placed away from dust. Numerous shelves were added to take care of hats, tennis rackets, cameras, and other paraphernalia. A second, smaller closet was built in another wall for storage of fur coats and woolen dresses.

Sufficient electric outlets were installed, enabling daughter to have proper lighting at her dressing table, a lamp by the comfortable reading chair, and a light on the night table.

An extra bed provides for those overnight visits of a chum so dear to the heart of the young girl.

"Keeping Room" Was Forerunner

The forerunner of the modern living room was known in Colonial days as the "keeping room" or "sitting room." Its paneled and painted walls, beamed ceiling and wide board floor scrubbed white or painted has set the style for many a living room. The keeping room was sometimes the great kitchen, but generally it was the best room in the house, placed in front of the kitchen.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, June 3 (AP).—The stock market today appeared to have shaken off its NRA chill.

The majority of traders, sellers last week following the supreme court's adverse New Deal decision, turned to the buying side of equities although commitments were selective and the activity was not so brisk as the commission houses desired.

The preferred shares of Cuban American Sugar came back for a gain of about 5 points and Columbian Carbon and Case got up 3 points or so each. Other advances of fractions to a point or more were registered by American Telephone, Commonwealth & Southern Preferred, United Corp. Preferred, General Motors, Chrysler, John-Manville, Union Carbide, Westinghouse, International Harvester, du Pont, American Woolen Preferred, Standard Oil of New Jersey, American Tobacco "B," Union Pacific, Santa Fe and N. Y. Central. The metals were listless.

While some market observers expected the administration would rush remedial legislation through Congress before official expiration of the NIRA on June 16, some questioned whether such action would prove to be an exceptional speculative or investment factor.

Special Officer White Plans To Retire Here

Special Officer Matthew White, known to his host of friends as Matt, has announced that he plans to retire from serving as a special policeman of the city on June 21, when the city schools close. He has served as a special policeman here for the past ten years, and has always proven an efficient and capable officer.

When 15 years of age Matt White became an apprentice in the U. S. Navy, in which he saw service for twenty years. He was on the ill-fated Vandalla, the late Commander Marius Schoonmaker, of Kingston, in charge, when the ship was wrecked in a terrible storm off the island of Samoa. Officer White was one of the three survivors of the crew.

Following his retirement from the navy, Mr. White was for five years with the American Merchant Marine, sailing the Pacific ocean and visiting China, Japan, India, Australia and other countries.

For a time he was foreman on a ship-rigging loft and after that was connected with a large construction and engineering company in New York, handling hydro-electric power.

Officer White came to Kingston about 11 years ago, and during the summer months has served efficiently as one of the special officers of the city. He has always been known for his integrity and strictness, but in spite of his strictness he is and has been well liked by the children of School No. 7, whom he has cared for during the time of their going to and from school.

Officer Matt White has had a most interesting career and many an interesting tale of sea and land he can tell when in the mood.

Made Walsh Into Human Anchor Is Tale

Providence, June 3 (AP)—State police and Providence detectives today sought verification of the grisly underworld tale which relates that Danny Walsh, rum syndicate chief, was stowed in a tub of cement until it hardened about his feet, then thrown alive into the sea.

They hoped to get details of the disappearance of Walsh from Arthur Rowland, 43, former rumboat skipper of Bridgeport, Conn., who police said, admitted he attended the "death supper" to Walsh at the Bank Cafe in Warwick on Feb. 2, 1933. Walsh was never seen alive after that night.

Rowland has also admitted, police said, he was present at a Boston hotel when a $40,000 ransom was paid for Walsh. Another "death supper" given, police said, was Carl Reitch, Walsh's former partner, now under indictment for the $129,000 Fall River mail robbery. He was also present at the ransom pay-off, they said.

Police have never established the reason for Walsh's snafu, whether it was in retaliation or a cold-blooded plot to raise money. Nor have they satisfied themselves that any of the "death supper" guests betrayed the rum syndicate operator.

The underworld legend of his torture death persists, however. Walsh was taken out in a boat, the tale runs, and with his feet in the wet cement, forced to watch it harden into the weight that would drag him to the bottom of the sea.

Questioning of Rowland, resumed today, has led to no revelations that promise immediate arrests, Lieut. Ernest F. Stenhouse of the state police said.

Officers of Roundout Lodge No. 342, F. & A. M., are desirous of having a good attendance at the regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The past master degree will be conferred.

Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., District No. 1, installation of Sister Edna Sheppard and staff, to have been held at Phoenixia, Tuesday evening, June 4, has been postponed indefinitely, due to illness in the family of the installing district deputy president.

At the regular meeting this evening of Kingston Lodge No. 121, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, the lodge will confirm the degree on five candidates. Nomination of officers will be presented at the meeting with the election taking place at the next meeting. Members of the degree team are asked to be at the hall at 7:30 and all officers are requested to wear white. The business meeting will start at 8 o'clock and at the conclusion of the lodge session a covered dish supper will be served.

It would be wonderful if all the people in this country agreed with each other for an hour—but not very interesting.

Big Reduction in Cases on Calendar In Supreme Court

Present indications are that the May term of Supreme Court will probably complete its work this week and that when the present term adjourns the Supreme Court calendar in Ulster county will have been reduced to about 150 cases, the smallest number which has remained on a supreme court calendar in many years.

Justice Schirlick and the clerk of the court have been cooperating to reduce the calendar in an effort to permit the newer actions to be reached and tried. It was expected that the present term would run into the second week of June but present indications are that it will not be necessary to hold the term beyond this week. However the term will be held in session until all cases on the strike-off calendar have been either tried or disposed of. Response has been so marked during the past few days to the efforts of Justice Schirlick and County Clerk Simpson that it is anticipated all strike-off cases will either be tried or settled or stricken from the calendar this week. In addition some cases of late issue which remain on the day calendar, will probably be disposed of this week.

A reduction from some 350 to 150 cases will bring the Ulster county trial calendar down to the best shape in years and will put it in the best shape of any calendar in the district.

Recently the Appellate Division ordered all trial justices to continue the May terms into June and if cases could be found ready to adjourn the term until September in an effort to reduce the size of the calendars and give late issues a chance to be tried.

From present indications the result desired by the Appellate Division has been attained in Ulster county. Justice Schirlick has been instrumental in disposing of an exceptionally large number of cases by settlement and many issues which have been pending for some time were cleared away by placing them on the day calendar and having the clerk of the court notify the attorneys to be in court and either try or dispose of the cases in some other way. The result has been that there were a great number of settlements and some dismissals of complaints.

Although all cases under the strike-off order and probably some late issues will be disposed of this week Justice Schirlick today stated that he would continue the term next week if cases could be found ready.

In the event the Ulster term is brought to a close this week Justice Schirlick stated he would offer to continue Justice Staley's trial term next week in Rensselaer county if Justice Staley desired to be relieved. The Rensselaer county calendar is in bad shape and efforts are being made to reduce the number of cases on the calendar. This morning Justice Schirlick said that since Justice Staley had been kept continually busy for the past two or three years due to a shortage of trial justices in this district, he would offer to relieve Justice Staley in Rensselaer county next week provided he had no trial work in Ulster.

Several Convicted.

"Doc," a number of others were convicted of the Bremer job in St. Paul, recently, along with John J. ("Boss") McLaughlin, Chicago politician, either for actually taking part in the kidnapping or for possessing ransom money.

Alvin Karpis and Harry Campbell, suspected of the recent kidnapping of little George Weyerhaeuser and Davis slued capture, but Davis only for a time.

Federal agents caught him in Kansas City in February, last year, and then once more, Davis proved his reckless resourcefulness. Handcuffed to two department of justice men, he was loaded aboard a plane and started for Chicago.

Engine trouble forced the pilot to bring his plane to an emergency landing in an unfrequented field near Yorkville, a town 50 miles southwest of Chicago. The federal men took Davis to the town to notify the department they would be delayed.

They stepped at a mailbox, and removed Davis' handcuffs at the bar. While one of his guards was at a telephone, Davis seized a beer stein, slipped it over his head, and dove head foremost through a window, leaped a fence, and made his escape, apparently unhurt by any of the bullets fired after him.

Memorial Rites

At Woodstock

Woodstock, June 3.—Woodstock was very active and very crowded on Memorial Day.

The first number on the program brought out everyone in the village. It was a parade at 10 o'clock, representing several organizations: State, American Legion and Auxiliary, Red Cross, Public Schools, Legion Corps of Sanghvi, and at 11 o'clock a mass meeting was held in the Dutch Reformed Church with the Rev. O. M. Rice as the presiding officer. At the close of the organ procession by Mrs. W. G. H. Rice, the call to order was given. The Rev. O. M. Rice stated the purpose of the meeting, to bring back to memory the courage, the unhappiness and the tragedies of past wars. The invocation prayer was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Rice. The prayer was followed by a number: "Crossing the Bar" by the Reformed Church male quartet. The Rev. Mr. Rice gave the Roll Call of veterans, each class rising for applause when called upon. The Spanish-American War, World War and Veterans of Foreign Armies and the American Legion Auxiliary were represented but there were no World War nurses of remembrance. LaMonte Simpkins spoke simply and briefly of the first Woodstock Memorial Association and the planting, last June of John W. Davis, the last Civil War Veteran in Woodstock. He closed by saying, "In memory of those heroes who have gone I beg you to take this motto, 'Carry On'."

Charles E. Gradwell at who's invitation the speaker of the day was present introduced the Hon. Charles Cleeve Daniels, Judge Daniels is special assistant to the U. S. Attorney General in charge of Indian Affairs in the State of New York. He spoke excellently on the meaning of Memorial Day, and the importance of the "right spirit" among American citizens. His speech was listened to with great interest and the audience felt they had gained much from hearing Judge Daniels inspiring address.

The Rev. Mr. Rice thanked the speaker and after the singing of America filed out of the church to the organ procession. The line of march was formed again, this time including guests of the Red Cross who were in charge of dedicating the tree to Dr. Mortimer B. Downer, M. D. Among those who were invited to join the procession were Judge Joseph M. Fowler, Dr. Mark O'Meara, Dr. Mortimer Downer, Dr. Lambert Dr. Cranston, Sr., Dr. Kamp, Dr. Cranston, Jr., Dr. Doyle, Kenneth Downer, Ruth Downer, Donald Downer, Mr. and Mrs. John Feeley, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Goetz, Mrs. Bird, Hervey White and Walter Koeniger. The Rev. Harvey I. Todd introduced the first speaker, Judge Joseph M. Fowler of the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross, who dedicated the tree. The tribute to the memory of Dr. Downer was given by his friend Dr. O'Meara of Kingston. A prayer by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd closed the ceremony in memory of one of Woodstock's most useful and best loved citizens.

The parade formed again for services in the cemetery. After the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the band LaMonte Simpkins gave a recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Grave services were given by the Junior Order of American Mechanics and the Odd Fellows. The Rev. J. B. Glenwood gave the benediction. The service closed with a salute to the dead by the firing of a salute and Taps, played by the Post Bugler.

Babe Ruth Quits Boston— Says He Was Double-Crossed

Boston, June 3 (AP)—Babe Ruth and the Boston Braves have parted. Baseball's mighty slugger was made a free agent yesterday, soon after he announced he was quitting the National League team because of a dispute with Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Braves.

"I can't get along with Fuchs," the home-run slugger Babe explained as he sang the swan song for one of the most glamorous of baseball's careers. "I will never play another game for the Boston Braves, although I have the highest regard for my Boston teammates and their manager, Bill McKechnie, one of the finest figures the game has ever produced. Fuchs double-crossed me and I will not play for the club as long as he remains in control."

Shortly after the Babe announced his voluntary retirement, Fuchs announced that he had given him his unconditional release.

It is likely that the resignation of Ruth, hailed as the financial salvation of the financially-harassed Braves, will cause an upheaval in the club's upstairs office.

The incident may hasten the passage of complete control of the Braves into the hands of Charles F. Adams, owner of two Boston professional hockey clubs, guiding genius of the $1,500,000 Suffolk Downs horse racing track in East Boston, and controlling stockholder of the National League baseball club here.

The aging and ailing home-run monarch, who was expected to lift the Braves into the big-money class, told baseball writers yesterday that he intended to petition the baseball authorities for a place on the National League retired list.

Ever since the season started, reports have raced through the major leagues that the once-mighty Babe had guessed wrong when he signed the double contract that tied him up with the Braves as a player and as second vice-president of the club.

Made Money for Braves
The two contracts guaranteed him $25,000 as a player, $5,000 more as a club official and a percentage of the gate receipts, both for the spring training season, which broke all the Braves' financial records, and the regular campaign, the most profitable in the club's history.

Some time ago, it became known in baseball circles, the Babe became irritated because he had been denied a share of the club's record spring training season profits. This disagreement, it is understood, caused the breach between him and Fuchs.

But Ruth cited a different reason for quitting baseball. He said he decided to go on the voluntary retired list when Fuchs refused him permission to go to New York to participate in the ceremonies in

The color of table beets can be controlled somewhat by regulating the date of planting so that the beetles will be ready to harvest in September or early in October, thus insuring a dark red color.

Will There Be Another James J. Champ?

Manager Jones Will Try Semi-Pro Ball Starting on Sunday

Manager Harold Jones, who since 1924 has been booking baseball teams in Kingston, has decided to try semi-pro ball here on Sundays again.

"I'm bringing in the Columbia Giants and Marine Bay Parkways next Sunday," said Jones today. "The Giants are a colored club and will make their home in Kingston if Sunday ball pays. I'm sure the folks will like them."

Jones said he was anxious to see Sunday ball go over and expressed the hope that there will be a large turnout of fans to see his first game. It will be played at the Kingston Fair Grounds, starting at 3 p. m. sharp.

"I was able to get the Columbia because they are looking for a home diamond," the manager told a reporter. "They intended to camp in Utica, but I'm going to try to hold them in Kingston if semi-pro pays."

Jones came into the limelight as a manager in 1924 when he brought the Golden Rode out into the field of competition as one of the best local colored clubs.

Kingston High Plays Saugerties Today

This afternoon at the Fair Grounds Kingston High baseball team was scheduled to meet the Saugerties High team. The game was called for 4 o'clock.

The contest is the second of the annual home and home games between the two schools. The first encounter was won by Saugerties by a 4-3 score in the eleventh inning of a scheduled seven inning contest.

Both teams have their lineups intact and ready for action. Brane, who allowed the Kingston five hits in the school's last encounter, will be on the mound for Saugerties. Bud Zoller is the likely choice for Kingston's mound assignment. Zoller also pitched the last game with the spriver aise.

On Wednesday afternoon at the Fair Grounds, the Maroon team will meet Sam Kalloch's outfit from Poughkeepsie High. On Saturday Kingston will play her rival DUSO game, meeting Port Jervis High School. So far Port Jervis has met and defeated all teams of the DUSO league except Kingston. If Port Jervis should win on Saturday she will be the DUSO champions. If Kingston should win the result would be a triple tie for the championship, as Kingston, Newburgh and Port Jervis would then all have won four games and have lost one.

Maroon Tennis Team Wins at Ellenville

Saturday at Ellenville the tennis team of the high school there lost to Kingston by the score of 3-4, the Maroon netmen making a clean sweep.

In the single Frenchmen, K. defeated Taylor, 6-4, 6-1 and R. defeated Schenck, 6-3, 11-9.

The Kingston doubles team, Seigel and Burger, won 3-2.

Yesterday's STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Mickey Cochrane, Tigers—Hit two doubles and single for perfect day at bat against White Sox.

Bob Smith, Braves—Shut out Giants with eight hits.

Eric McNair, Athletics—Knocked in three runs against Senators with double and single.

Jim Weaver and Pep Young, Pirates—Weaver blanked Reds with five hits, Young made three blows, knocking in four runs.

Bill Dickey, Yankees—Clouted two of team's six homers against Red Sox.

Ed Boland, Phillies—Made pinch hit in ninth inning rally that beat Brooklyn, driving in two runs and scoring one.

Mel Harder, Indians—Scattered nine St. Louis hits for season's seventh victory.

Jim Collins, Cardinals—Hit home run with bases full in ninth to beat Cubs.

Royals Defeat Wilbur Dodgers in Close Game

The Kingston Royals defeated the Wilbur Dodgers Sunday after a hard struggle. Up to the seventh, the last inning, the Royals were trailing four to one, but they staged a rally in the seventh, putting six runs across and giving them the game, seven to six. Spitzer, with a double and Bradford with a timely single featured for the winners.

Wednesday evening the Royals will cross bats with the Trojans on the latter's diamond. Spitzer will be in the box for the Royals, with Tomasek behind the bat.

SULLIVAN TO BAER

A Pictorial History of the Heavyweights

XIX. SHARKEY VS. SCHMELING—1932

The heavyweight reign of Max Schmeling, who had set his way into the championship in June, 1929, by winning on a foul from Jack Sharkey and subsequently being "defeated" champion by the New York commission, was a routine of success and uncertainty.

The Black Chian had been destroyed and suspended by the New York body in 1931 for failing to give Sharkey a return match for June of that year. But had stopped Young Strickling in Cleveland that summer in a battle that was generally recognized as a title defense.

On June 21, 1932, in the Lone Island bowl, the north-brother German's career ended—almost as unceremoniously as it had begun—when he lost a disputed decision to Sharkey in 15 rather tame rounds.

The legendary Luthesian became the accepted champion when Red-nose Gumbert Smith voted in his favor to break a deadlock of the judges. It was a clean battle all the way.

The show drew $135,000 gross, of which Schmeling received $135,750 and Sharkey $41,000.

Rondout Socials Win At Napanoch, but Lose Sunday at Cementon

The North Rondout Social Club ball players broke even in their weekend games. They took their game with the Napanoch Institution Saturday by a score of 11-2, but were not so fortunate at Cementon Sunday, where they lost a hard fought game 4-3.

Gus Weideman pitched against Napanoch and allowed but four hits, while his teammates were collecting a total of 19 safeties, including a homer by Tommy Lewis.

The Cementon contest was marked by a difference of opinion in the ninth, when the umpire ruled that Ralph Williams' single to left was foul and that runs scored by men on second and third did not count. The score stood 4 to 2 at the beginning of the ninth and would have been tied had the hit been allowed.

The Socials made ten hits off Schlenker, who, however was credited with 12 strikeouts. Manello, pitching for the Socials, allowed but seven hits during the game. A home run by Earl Mitchell of the Socials was the batting feature of the game.

Czech Davis Cup Players Look Good

Paris, June 3 (AP)—Tennis critics, having watched a drab French hard court tennis tournament, conjectured today that the Czechs would be the team to watch in the coming Davis Cup play.

The hard court tournament wound up yesterday with Fred Perry of England capturing the men's singles title and Mme. Hilda Krahwinkel Spiering of Germany taking the women's singles crown.

Next of those who watched the play, liberally sprinkled with unsolicited matches, were thinking of the coming Davis Cup matches.

They watched the technique of the Czechs, Roderich Menzel and L. Bedt, who have proved their worth before, and then the slugging play of Caska and Malecek who, they agreed, were the most improved players in the international field.

The final in the men's singles yesterday when Perry dethroned Norman Gottfried Von Cramm, the defender, was probably the most stirring match of the entire tournament. The scores were 6-3, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Miss Spiering had an easy time disposing of Mme. Renee Mathieu of France in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1. She played the same steady game that she did yesterday in upsetting the hope to eliminate Helen Jacobs, the American champ, in the semi-finals.

Miss Jacobs, however, seemed undisturbed at her setback, and set off for Wimbledon where she may encounter Helen Wills Moody, the former American champ.

Lievre Fans Fourteen As Huron Indians Win From Kingston Senecas

One big inning gave the Huron Indians six runs and a 10-4 decision over the Kingston Senecas Sunday at Kristie Field, Rosendale.

Kelder and Snyder opened the third with singles and Mahar hit Faby to fill the bases. F. walked, forcing in Kelder, and Rask singled to left to score Snyder and Faby. F. Neff moving to third Dulin's throw to Gadd caught F. Neff napping at third as H. Rask went second. P. Rask hit to Purvis as H. Rask was run down between second and third for the second on Mahar hit C. Neff and Yonnet with a single to center and Kelder forced Lievre at second for the first out, with six runs in.

The Senecas tallied in the fourth when Murdock singled to right, advanced on a passed ball and crossed the plate on Mahar's single to left.

In the fifth Hanley forced Dulin who had singled, took third. Gadd's single and scored on Mahar one-timer to center.

The Senecas shoved over two the sixth as Scherer reached first Regan's error. Purvis walked. Advanced as Carr was being run at first and scored as Dulin singled to right.

High School Golfers Beat Tannersville Linksman Second Time

The Kingston High School team, playing its last dual match of the season, defeated Tannersville High School 10½-7½ last Saturday.

The local golfers lost only one of the six matches and tied another, winning three single matches and one foursome. Holcomb, Benjamin and Hung scored victories in single matches while Heitman, Holcomb and Walk in the first four.

The team had previously scored 11-7 victory over the mountains on the Kingston course and showed its ability by defeating them on its own course. This was the final match of the current season. The team will compete in the Hudson Valley championship tournament at Den next Saturday.

The results of Saturday's matches were as follows:

Twoomes
Heitman (K), tied Gressick (T).

Holcomb (K), defeated Valk (T).

Benjamin (K), defeated Hyer (T).

Hung (K), defeated Eggleston (T).

Heitman and Holcomb defeated Gressick and Valk, 2½-1½.

Hyer and Eggleston defeated Benjamin and Hung, 2½-1½.

The season's record for the Maroon golfers is as follows:

Kingston 15½ Poughkeepsie 11
Kingston 11 Tannersville 7
Kingston 7½ Poughkeepsie 11
Kingston 10½ Tannersville 7

Play Schedule of Maverick Theatre

The summer schedule of plays for the 1936 season of the Maverick Theatre has been arranged, starting with June 27 with the exception of two dates reserved for tryouts of plays not yet selected.

The first play, "Post Road", by Wilbur Daniel Steele and Norma Mitchell, will be presented June 27. On July 4 the play will be "Accent on Youth" by Samuel Raphaelson; July 11, "Ropes End"; July 18, "Laburnum Grove" by J. B. Priestly; July 25, "Mr. Borja" by Henrick; August 1, "The Shining Hour"; August 8, a tryout not yet chosen; August 16, "An Outdoor Spectacle (Festival)"; August 23, a tryout not yet chosen.

The tryouts will be announced when selected. The others are plays that have already proved successful elsewhere.

The list of players for the season includes the following, some of whom were members of last year's company: Robert Elwyn, Velma Royton, Frank Roth, Farrell Pelly, Harriet Marshall, Mary Farrell, Stephen Sanders, Donald McHenry, Francesella Lenni, Cynthia Arden and others.

The technical staff is composed of Robert Elwyn, managing director; R. Birrell Rawls, technical director; Lloyd Hallock, assistant technical director; Cynthia Arden, publicity.

As in former seasons each play will continue for four nights a week, Thursday through Sunday.

The company expects to arrive sometime between June 10 and 15.

Man's taste in raiment is said to be "veering toward a riot of color." Probably the last stand of radicalism.

Her husband killed it, but couldn't solve the mystery of how it got into the drawer.

Pairs.
Chicago—If the twins "miss" a Sunday at Trinity Episcopal church in suburban Wheaton, Ill., there's going to be a heavy drop in attendance.
The Sunday school has an enrollment of 100 persons, and of that number ten per cent are twins—five sets in all. The oldest pair are 16 years and the youngest six months.

Long Race.
Granger, Utah—M. W. Shields, an instructor at the University of Alaska, hurried here by boat and train from Fairbanks, hoping to beat the storm. He arrived just 10 minutes before his wife gave birth to a son.

Business Is Good.
Pittsburgh—Trading value at current rates of one complete set of dinosaur bones:
One mammoth, one bison and one rhinoceros.
That's what the Carnegie Museum got for one of its dinosaurs, and the experts are assembling their mammoth.
It came about that scientists for

It's the NORGE Rollator Refrigerator

• The magic of Rollator Refrigeration! A small, slowly rolling mechanism with but three moving parts—almost everlasting—powered to make more cold than you'll ever need to chill foods and so freeze ice the hottest day in midsummer—so perfectly made that it actually improves with use—that's the famous Norge Rollator cold-making mechanism. There's no other like it—and only Norge has it.

Choose Norge for its beauty; you'll find no more beautiful refrigerator. Choose it for its convenience; it has every feature of convenience you could wish. Choose it for its economy; users say Norge saves up to $11 a month in household expense. Most important of all, choose Norge for your 'round, dependable, trouble-free Rollator Refrigeration. See the Norge before you buy any refrigerator.

THE ROLLATOR—Smooth, easy, rolling power issued of the hurried back-and-forth action of the ordinary refrigerator mechanism. Rollator's rolling power for the current used. Only Norge has the famous Rollator cold-making mechanism.

The New FORD V-8 Convertible Sedan

The Convertible Sedan with top up—same lines, safe-proof comfort.

BESIDE the smart, new body-type shown above (the only convertible sedan in the low price field) we are also exhibiting this week the Ford V-8 TOURING SEDANS, which are fast becoming so popular this year . . . Other body types, too . . . Come in and look them over!

DO YOU want all the comfort and suggestiveness of a deluxe sedan combined in the same car with the open-sky freedom of a phaeton? . . . Then here is a new Ford body-type you should see immediately.

Here is an all-weather car for people who have to drive cooped up under an immovable top when the sun is shining. The side windows, of course, can be rolled up when the top is down if there is too much breeze . . . And they are held in sturdy chromium plated frames.

The top is of uni-colored, interlined, rubber cloth . . . The front seat is adjustable . . . There is a luggage compartment behind the rear seat providing ample space for storing luggage when you are touring . . . You have your choice of genuine leather or Bedford Cord seat cushions . . . Equipment is deluxe throughout including twin horns, twin tail-lights, ash trays in both front and rear compartments and a robe rail . . . In body colors you have (at no extra cost) a wide variety to choose from. And each body color can be set off by wheels of a contrasting color, if you wish.

See this new Ford V-8 Convertible Sedan today. Nothing so smart exists at anywhere near the price.

—Or, if you prefer some other Ford body-type, we will have that on display also. Drop in. You are welcome at our Ford Salon at a guest, without the slightest obligation.
